Midlands Meander

Having just returned from the Natal Midlands, Brian and I feel we have a 'gem' to share with you all.

NOTE the dates have changed slightly. The Meander is historically busy over the weekends, and with bringing our trip forward by TWO days we have been given better rates.

We have booked our base at GRANNY MOUSE which is what we believe, "The Best on Offer". In working closely with the Tourism office we have been able to put together a good programme which will include one day in the Berg with a performance by the famous Drakensberg Berg Boys Choir; morning tea at Michael-house; and many other exciting other visits to crafters in the area.

Cost for this 6 day trip away is R9,915 pp including return flights, coach transport, accommodation & meals as specified

Interested? Please ask for a brochure.

The Desert Express & Etosha

Thursday 26th August to 2nd September

Our 9 compartments are booked. Many of you have asked the price so you can 'forward plan'. It looks to be in the region of R18,500—R19,000 sharing.

The variation is because of the air fares and I can only quote you a firm price once I do the group air booking.

I also need to have 'firm' commitments on this and within the second to third week of February those who have expressed interest will get letters with full pricing and details.
