The start of our new "week end packages" - shorter periods away means cost savings!

SOETES EN SOP

In July you can expect to have cold day coupled with rain! A super way to spend the day is to travel to the Breedekloof Area. This area is just beyond the Du Toitskloof Tunnel on the road to Worcester. The air is crisp and fresh, and you will be amazed how very friendly the folk are in this valley! The wine estates in the area highlight their "sweet wine" and couple this with soup.

Cost for the day which will include your transport and entrance to the various estates (which includes your soup / sweet wine) is R260 per person. Last time I took the group to lunch they felt they could not do justice to a meal after the soup! I will stop the coach somewhere in the afternoon and you may have an (optional) lunch or light snack!

Desert Express—Namibia

We currently have 11 people booked in 7 compartments on this luxury train from Windhoek to Etosha. There are only 24 compartments in 9 coaches, so if you are still contemplating coming aboard, you had better confirm as soon as possible....Trans Namib Railways have advised that this trip is almost fully booked!

Lalibela—Port Elizabeth

We currently have 11 people booked on this trip which combines a night on a Premier Class train, one night in a beach-front hotel in Port Elizabeth, two nights in a 5 star game reserve (with the BIG 5) and a return flight from PE to Cape Town. Lalibella has 3 Game Lodges which are (all) almost fully booked!

Nuy Valley week end

A 4X4 ROUTE will take you deep into the spectacular Nuy River ravines where meals are served on the mountain cabin's patio. These "Kloof" meals are true South African cuisine: delicious potjiekos and braai's. Other activities in the Kloof are swimming in the pools and trout fishing. We will spend one night away. Planning is underway and details will be released shortly.

You may even experience wine tasting with a difference.
