OCTOBER 2016

Our very special day in Wellington and the birth of CAROLINE

Who of you will ever forget our arrival at the Quenti Alpaca Farm and Stephen telling us that an Alpaca was about to be born!! We hurriedly went out into the 'birthing pen' and a little Alpaca had just been born. To watch the young guy on the farm rubbing the baby to keep it warm and then a further decision to take the baby inside, into the barn! It was after all a cold, damp day in Wellington. They then proceeded to warm the baby up with a hair drier - and ALL this time the mother Alpaca, Lina, wasn't showing any concern at us all oohing and aahing - must have been because we were a bunch of 'grannies' / 'nannas' and she didn't feel we would harm her baby. We were thrilled to hear that Quenti is christening the baby CAROLINE—what an absolute honor for all at Time Out!

Welcome to Ann and Phyllis - hope to see you both on many more Trips! The ladies 'shopped-up-a-storm' at Wellington Dried Fruit and then we headed to The Perfect Place in town for an absolutely delicious lunch. We had great service - amazing how these people in Wellington know how to treat customers! Thank you so very much Susan and all your well trained staff at The Perfect Place. I'm sure many of the ladies will return whenever they're in Wellington.

I thought Theresa was shopping for new clothes for her upcoming Knysna tour.

The Hat is terrific for the wind—but the dress a bit OTT!!

(In the words of Theresa on Facebook
"Girls just wanna have FUN")

Yeah I could not agree MORE Theresa—thank you for the lovely photo!

OctoberCOME ALONG
ALL YOU OLD DUCKS!

Originally I was going to take you all to GROWING PAPER—an innovative business near Malmesbury. Unfortunately after our normal recce we found access to the farm to be a problem so we looked for a replacement venue.

How many of you have heard of VERGENOEGD and their innovative way of keeping bugs and slugs @ bay in the vineyards. They use DUCKS and they have well over 1000 ducks. A couple of times a day they have a DUCK PARADE when the 'workers get to work' in the fields! We will watch the 12h30 parade and then enjoy lunch under the big old trees on this very old Wine Estate.

After lunch if you choose, you can visit the FARM NURSERY and watch how the baby ducks are doing, at an additional cost of R20 per person!

THE 12H30 DUCK PARADE IN FULL SWING!

FINAL TIME OUT TRIP FOR 2016

On Thursday 24th November we'll be heading to the Hemel en Aarde Valley.

We will enjoy lunch at SOURCE, a new restaurant started by Warwick Taylor who has previously worked at Creation. Warrick's wife is helping him, in the new venture

Come along and enjoy the last TIME OUT trip for 2016 and hear all about what is planned for 2017!

A tribute to Gillie Pegrum

Some people come into your lives and you never forget them,

Gillie was just such a person in my life—I became very fond of Gillie over the many years that I knew her.

What a tremendous zest she had for life—we all can remember her great sense of humor!

She went through many years of heartache with Bill her husband when he was ill, and then Gillie's health started failing! I can only imagine what she went through - yet in all the time I never once heard Gillie complain. Near the end of her life she became frail and we all knew she was more than ready to go! What an absolute honor to have a row and a half filled in the Catholic Church at her memorial service with all you wonderful people, and to hear from Gillie's family, in their tributes, how much Time Out and Traveltime meant in her life.

GO WELL my dear friend, Gillie - loved by many - you are already missed!
