Time for all the old ducks to join the parade at Vergenoegd

Thirty of us headed out of Cape Town on a glorious day. First stop was the Polkadraai farmstall where some purchased strawberries (on special they were too!); some had coffee; some watched the eager school children. They have superior quality, very large strawberries - which are generally supplied to Woolworths ; Spar ; and other stores.

We arrived at Vergenoegd by 11h45 and there was time to order a drink and catch up with friends before the DUCK PARADE at 12h30. Ducks waddling along became the center of attraction. Having previously seen this parade it was somewhat disappointing in size - I asked management and heard that they have 'been selling off some of their ducks' - Pity about this but still spectacular to those who've not seen it before!

We shared Vineyard and Dessert Platters for lunch. A sure way to have a 'gesellige lunch' is to share food with your neighbour !! Conversation flowed and a good time was had by all.

We had 2 birthday 'boytties' with us—Dennis who had been celebrating his 80th ALL week long—and still looks fantastic! And Brian who was celebrating his 71st the following day. Good wishes to you both for continued good health and happiness!

LAST TIME OUT DAY FOR 2016

Today we are heading to the Hemel en Aarde valley just outside Hermanus. Distance to be traveled is 124km—so expect to get home a bit later today! It will be well worth it and after all it is the LAST trip for 2016 for Time Out—Time to see your friends before the Christmas holidays! We will start our day off on a lavender/olive farm outside of the Hemel en Aarde Village - Hemelrand - time to see what Mary Ann and her husband Hans are doing with their retirement years! They both do Olive Oil / & lavender and they have wonderful product to share with us!

After this we will head into the Hemel en Aarde Village to enjoy lunch at SOURCE - Warwick Taylor who now works at SOURCE with his wife, will prepare our lunch in his new restaurant! They both have an outstanding record in the food industry. The name SOURCE represents finding the right ingredients and using them for a reason!

Do you love figs ?

Fresh figs always mean that summer is with us! We will head to Ceres today to pick your own figs (or buy a punnet). Come today and enjoy a laid back day in the countryside with a light lunch in the area. Fig season starts on 14th January and ends on about the 6th February so we are assured of a good supply of this precious fruit!

Guess who's become a gran?

Heather has become a first time granny! What a delight to share her enthusiasm - Heather enjoy little Callum - us 'old-hand' grannies know the feeling and are pleased to share this experience with you!
