THE STONE KITCHEN IN WELLINGTON

We had a full coach (42 people) going to Wellington on Thursday 29th May. Our first stop was the Safari Shop in the Main Road where new owners were ever so thrilled to have their tills working overtime when the TO shoppers ascended en-masse! We arrived at the Dunstone Wine Estate and some ladies did a site inspection of their accommodation - some did wine tasting prior to a delicious lunch of Lamb Chops with garlic mash and green beans and to complete this a decadent (almost Master Chef) dessert of individual lemon meringue tarts.

We had rain back to the city but were so lucky in that we were able to move about Wellington in almost dry, but still very chilly weather! We had a record number of 'same-names' attending—3 Brenda's (sorry I left you out girls when I made my initial announcement) - 4 Ann's; 2 Carol's; & 2 Pat's!! Nice as well for Hilda to have her 2 sisters on the trip as well as Pat Munro who had her sister from the UK & her brother-in-law and sister-in-law to enjoy the trip with her!

STAY LOCAL & Enjoy the City in June

Hey, hey we are mid-year already. June is when the weather will be 'cool and raining' for sure!

I have planned for our group to go to the Edge Glass Studio. Nelius and other artists have created a life-size seagull mobile with 1000 glass fish for the View Hotel in the Wilderness. The glass chandelier at the restaurant on the top of Table Mountain boasts his work. The Edge Glass Gallery showcases exquisite pieces from local and leading overseas artists from Australia, the UK and the Netherlands. These pieces are mainly sold to discerning collectors.

Nelius has his work exhibited in several private collections in SA and in the Broadfield House Glass Museum in England. I feel excited about this visit as it will be Winter and a nice way to 'broaden our horizons' with this visit to this stunning gallery. After our visit to the glass studio we will go down to the V&A Waterfront where lunch will be at the Market on the Wharf.

TIME OUT IS 14

It is time to celebrate the birthdays of Time Out and Traveltime, when Time Out turns 14 and Traveltime 7. Where, oh where have the years gone. As always the venue is a surprise, but you are promised a day of FUN/GIFTS/and GOOD FOOD at a brand new & exciting venue.

(Carol is seen at left with the Maitre'D at our lunch venue). Guess where this is and win a FREE day on 31/7.

PHONE on Monday 30th June after 08h30 with your answer. All correct answers will be noted and one winner drawn on 1st July.

I have managed to obtain some gifts from my usual contacts. It would be great to have a few more - are you able to help?

If you are able to obtain / donate a gift please let me know by Monday 30th June. I will collect your donation (or you can bring it with you on the June TO trip on the 26th June).

I need to get ALL donated gifts in before I go to Grahamstown on the 5th July for the National Arts Festival, to ensure that all the gifts are wrapped and ready before 31st July.

Cost for the day including transport and 3 course lunch is R375 per person.
