TIME TO CELEBRATE

Time Out is 14

50 of us headed out to our Mystery Venue—The Au'De Hex Boutique Hotel in Wellington. This newly opened hotel pulled-out-all-the-stops for our group. What a wonderful lunch - service par excellence—views to die-for and the promise of a return visit to enjoy this diamond in the Western Cape. Mel was an outstanding MC once again and her speech was so heartwarming to Brian and I, who from now on will be called the 'Boomerang Handlers' after Carol's speech who likened the ordinary boomerang to the success both Brian and her feel in their travels with extra-ordinary people! The lunch met all expectations! Everyone went home with a gift - some with more than one! A very special prize draw at the end saw Dawn Schroder and Ingrid Hestermann winning a ticket each to accompany Brian and Carol to War Horse (Hand Spring Puppet Company) in December. What a warm feeling everyone had as we sadly boarded the coach to return to the mayhem of late afternoon traffic.

Sincere thanks to all on board the coach for my beautiful flowers and the gift voucher for Brian—You All Rock!

PAARL & THE RED TABLE RESTAURANT

By the end of August Cape Town should be experiencing a bit warmer weather—hey, there are reports of the Spring Flowers blooming already. Historically August is still a very cold month and what better than to go to a restaurant where the main colour is RED?!

Our restaurant THE RED TABLE in the Manor house on the Nederburg Estate will have a blazing fireplace to warm us (if necessary) The RED TABLE offers locally sourced, fresh, bistro-type food in a 'gesellige atmosfeer'.

VISIT TO THE DE FYNNE NURSERY

If our weather permits we will visit the De Fynne Nursery near Paarl.

This nursery was founded by Jacky Goliath who started propagating plants in her backyard. Today she has a contract to supply Woolworths with her plants and is well known in the industry!

If the weather turns sour we will visit BUFFET OLIVES very close to Nederburg to sample their product before moving on to lunch at Nederburg.

Time Out Goes To Elgin

I am busy working on the September trip. I have set up lunch at the Platform 1 Eatery on the Railway line in Elgin (a new restaurant!) and am still busy confirming the finer details which will be available in the September newsletter.

Thursday
30th October

The Waverley Hills Estate near Ceres

When we did the Soetes en Sop in July to the Breedekloof area I met 2 ladies who are keen to meet you all. I am trying to set up that our restaurant for October will be prepared to host these two ladies—one makes Worcester Sauce and lives in Worcester and the second makes divine cheese straws and rusks (I, as you know always try to support local business and there will be more about this in the September newsletter)

ANNUAL SUBS ARE DUE

For those of you who have your newsletter posted please be reminded that your annual subscriptions are due. The amount is R240 per annum for us to post your newsletter to you. This amount can be paid with future outings!
