Outcome of our 3
survey

We all went to Paternoster on a cold, rainy day, BUT we HAD FUN

We are all so very fortunate to be able to get on a luxurious coach and head out into the country for the day with a load of happy people. When you come back after a day like this it fills your soul and you realize just how very lucky we all are! In the words of one of the ladies "You have no idea of how happy it makes me to come on these tours"

On arrival in Paternoster, a few went to the Panty Bar and crammed into their small space; a few went shopping; yet a few more went to see the work of Pam Breitenbach (a ceramicist par excellence); and also stopped in at Uro and Sven in their new home -cum- Art Gallery, where we ogled at Uro's art, and enjoyed an Italian coffee coupled with delicious chocolate chip cookies!

At 12h45 we all headed to MONDVOL just outside Paternoster. It is advertised as being of the standard of an excellent Cape Town restaurant, and they aren't wrong at all! Charmaine and Alex host people to the N'th degree - they are diligent in what they do and it shows! The food was delicious—little pot pies with roasted vegetables & a choice of Lemon Meringue / Chocolate cake OR Carrot Cheesecake, with coffee or tea, completed our time with them. One downer was the rain and extremely bad traffic on the return journey, which had the Constantia people stuck in Koeberg Rd for an hour!

COME WITH ME TO KIKKA IN PAARL

Spend time at Kikka Main and Kikka Boulevard

A flair for food, flowers and caffeine saw Kikka grow from the mere seed it was in 2004 to what it is today. This Paarl-based dynamic offering of Kikka Main, Kikka Laborie, and Kikka Boulevard, aims to bring families and friends together in three unique and equally satisfying spaces, showcasing premium coffee brews, florists, and nutritious and delicious bites to eat!

We start our morning off with a demonstration on how to make a floral posy. (Lucky ticket numbers will ensure you have the chance to win one of these posies to take home)

Lunch will be at Kikka Boulevard (built around the Old Paarl Jail)

GIFTS OR NO GIFTS THAT WAS THE QUESTION

On our Paternoster trip I asked the question.

Of the 14 who completed the form only 2 of you wanted gifts

I also asked a few of the regulars who always come to the anniversary lunch BUT were not on the Paternoster trip, and the result has been unanimous

We will not be having gifts at the anniversary luncheon

INSTEAD we will make a donation to a charity!
