OCTOBER &amp; IT'S DURBANVILLE

We started off our morning at the Durbanville Rose Garden. Such a pity, as with the drought the roses which thrive on water and loads of it, seemed almost 'stunted' in their production of roses - at this time of the year generally roses are flourishing and look beautiful. Coupled with a heat wave that Cape Town has been having, it was very quickly decided to leave the Rose Garden and head into Durbanville and visit the Chocolat coffee shop! Chocolat has recently moved into the old premises of OUR PLACE which Time Out visited in 2013! A very pleasant coffee shop, well worthy of another visit! Fabulous décor and excellent service.

After a cold drink everyone felt so much happier and were ready for the short bus ride to Evertsdaal Opstal! This very old Historic building has unique characteristics—and with the thick walls popular for building in the early 1900's was a cool place to eat lunch. We had their 'Syaal' to ourselves and this is always so conducive to enjoying lunch with friends! A delicious lunch it was as well.....huge chicken breasts with mushroom sauce, onion rings & veggies, followed by a lemon cheesecake dessert!

THURSDAY
29th
NOVEMBERLet's head out to the Bredekloof area

We start our morning at Bloomia

In the 18 years that I have been planning day trips, I have not yet repeated a trip. This month, however, I will be repeating a trip that we did in January 2011 when we visited Prominent Tulips in the Rawsonville area! However, this company has been purchased by an American company and is now called BLOOMIA. They produce tulips under greenhouses year round on their 1300m2 property. We will do a short guided tour of their greenhouse and you will be able to purchase a bunch to take home! (Perhaps bring a cool box to keep them fresh!). After this we head to a favourite restaurant of ours in the Bredekloof area—the Opstal Restaurant! A delicious lunch and some time to share what you will be doing for Christmas ; and what you are buying as gifts!

Coach will leave

First trip for 2019 is :
THURSDAY 31ST JANUARY

I'm busy planning the New Year of 2019 for you all. Details will be available in a newsletter which will come out, somewhat later than usual—about the 15th January

*Michael Laruffa
dear husband of Ann passed away
on the night of 31st October. Ann, we all are aware of the long battle Michael endured and we share your grief
with you*

We always so APPRECIATE THE SUPPORT YOU GIVE US!

As a result I have placed many of your names in a HAT and will draw
ONE NAME EACH MONTH for a complimentary TIME OUT trip

LUCKY WINNER THIS MONTH IS HEATHER FISHER
