FEBRUARY AND FUN AT THE "SINGING COOK" - Rivendell

28th February—last day of the month—and a day spent in the company of Antonia da Silva Swart - a very interesting chef who originally hails from Hout Bay where he ran a restaurant for many years! Now firmly entrenched on the Rivendell Estate he has a unique way of serenading the group and it was fabulous! On arrival we were met with him welcoming us in song, and him telling us we were all going to have a fabulous time & 'that we did'. The meal was superb - in fact, one the ladies said "The best she's had in ages"!! We had a Beef Lasagna with side salad and for dessert we enjoyed Tiramisu—the Real McCoy! This meal also included a glass of wine.

Antonia sang a few Elvis songs which were fabulous and then at the end of our lunch he brought a staff member who has worked with him for years and they both sang - "O Solo Mio" - a great way to spend an afternoon!

We had 2 other stops on this day - to start, coffee at a coffee shop in Kleinmond and, of course, we never go on this route without a 'compulsory stop' at Peregrines.

BABYLONSTOREN & ITS BEAUTY

Babylonstoren is the ONE place that one can visit time-and-again! Their gardens are magnificent & time spent in the garden will warm your soul.

I have managed to secure 10 places on their special collection tour (this might be the succulents or a wander along the stream or a visit to their healing garden).

HOWEVER, for this tour you must confirm with me before 18th March if you wish to do the walking tour!

Otherwise we will take the coach into Babylonstoren by about 10h45 and you will be free to do wine tasting/ visit their new Perfume shop/ and generally enjoy YOUR OWN WALK—We will leave the gardens at 12h30 for lunch at Zorgvliet

Lunch at the beautiful ZORGVLIT in the Banhoek Valley—
A farm Time Out has never visited!

I'm SO sorry—
The newsletter VERY late this month!

We usually endeavour to get our newsletters out by the 2nd—4th of the month. This month I was in the Eastern Cape from the 3rd to 6th March “Having FUN” - so better late than never I guess!
