BOSJES IN THE BREEDEKLOOF IN THE MONTH OF OCTOBER

Bosjes is only 108,5km from Tableview but with our 1st pick up from Constantia being somewhat delayed by traffic, we only got going from Tableview by about 09h45. After a short comfort break at the Winelands Engen we went through the Du ToitsKloof tunnel by 11h30 with still a distance of only 37,7km to Bosjes but the road was fraught with stop-'n-go's! This has us arriving at Bosjes at about 12h10 which was a pity – perhaps next time we need to combine this trip with our away trips to give us longer to enjoy the gardens and their stunning chapel!

On arrival we had a 'short' lecture about Bosjes from Francie; the chapel; and the gardens. Those who wanted to, still managed to walk the garden; with a stunning water feature with water trickling down the sides of high walls and then being recycled and pumped to the top to start the process over again; some walked the little kopje – This estate which has won many coveted awards, is predominately used as a wedding venue because of their unique chapel. After our walk everyone was ready for lunch at the Bosjes Kombuis and they served us a Harvest Table Luncheon –

Various breads (Seed Loaf, Milk Roll; Ciabatta) Spreads – Hummus, Smoked Olives, Tomato Jam, served with cured Beef Charcuterie; Smoked sirloin; Rare Roast Beef; Chicken Kebabs and Garden salads of Red Pepper; Crouton, Oranges, Broccoli and Toasted Almonds, Butter Lettuce. They also had Mini Vegetable and Beef Quiches – All followed by delicious Chocolate Brownies and Homemade Marshmallows. We ended up leaving Bosjes by about 15h15 which had us getting stuck in late afternoon traffic with drop-off in Tableview at about 17h30 and Constantia would have only got home by about 19h00! A long day – and as I said at the outset perhaps these distances are best tackled on longer away trips when one can stay close by and enjoy the venues far more – instead of a 'whistle stop' trip! We should all heed the words of Dalai Lama ☐

TRIP TO LE POMMIER POSTPONED TO 2020!!

Brian and I are very aware of the spiraling economy and the expense everyone has at Christmas, and so for this reason we have decided to CANCEL the end of November trip (which last year we almost cancelled due to lack of support) and trust you will all support us on our

SUNDAY 8TH DECEMBER MYSTERY VENUE TRIP

instead!

To have TWO trips only NINE DAYS APART just does not make FINANCIAL SENSE!

We would rather have a BUMPER TURNOUT
ON SUNDAY 8TH DECEMBER than have minimum numbers on the November trip.

Hope you all understand our logic with this decision which we mulled over for quite a while!

The December Mystery Venue tour has always been very popular and it is with this in mind that we now have one choice only!

Details of our January trip to be announced early in 2020

2019 has come and is almost gone—
ONLY 56 DAYS
UNTIL WE WILL BE HEARLDING IN THE
START OF A NEW DEC-ADE—THE YEAR OF 2020!

Politically I like to believe we've never been in a more exciting phase in South Africa—
Out with negativity and in with positivity the Bokke winning the World Rugby cup!

COME ON LET'S ALL TRY!
