Family Trauma.. 1

TIME OUT:

On-the Go ++++ 2

TRAVEL-TIME:

Swartberg Country Manor 3

Upcoming Tours: 4

* Namibia

* Sutherland

* Desert Express

In view of the family trauma experienced over November through January we decided to provide an abridged, single Newsletter which combines upcoming information for both Time Out & Traveltime, into a single publication. This will revert to "normal" from April.

Healing takes a matter of time, but it is sometimes also a matter of opportunity. Hippocrates

When, on the 18th November I went for what I thought was a 'routine' Doctors visit, I never in my wildest thoughts imagined that 80 days later, I would be released from the clutches of their fists after 3 surgeries / many, many medications, BUT at the end of the period the best of all, loving care!

Most of all I have my loving family (especially Brian) to thank for their constant love and support during the 3 weeks when I was in ICU—they had a family What's App group going and I still get SO emotional when I read it! I've limited myself to a bit-at-a-time otherwise I crumble.

Next, I have to thank you all my 'family in Time Out'—Brian was inundated with love and support and we both are ever so grateful for this! Your visits, phone calls, what's apps and encouragement made our road that much easier!

I am happy to say that I am getting stronger—each day I 'push' myself that much harder. One thing the whole experience has taught me is "VALUE EACH DAY AND DON'T TAKE THINGS FOR GRANTED! We are all put on this earth for a reason and LOVE those who surround you"

My Sincere Thanks

WE VISIT A UNIQUE SET OF BUSINESSES

As you all know I am attracted to unique businesses and in looking for something 'different' I came up with three; Brian and I took a drive out to visit this different/wacky/but comforting set of businesses.

ON-THE-GO is a coffee shop with its sea facing patio and friendly Manager Yolande;

VOETSTOOTS is where Barbara has displays of antique clothes, furniture & knick-knacks which take you through the ages; POTTERS PANTRY - will sort out our lunch for us!

We are working on other upcoming outings and will be detailing April and maybe May in the April Newsletter.

Let us not forget our 20th anniversary, which we celebrate this July. We have been giving this a lot of thought over the past year and we have noted a few ideas which we want to pursue before we release final plans.

TimeOut is Twenty In July 2020
