REPORT ON THE LAST TOUR OF 2020—THE ANNUAL MYSTERY TOUR

On the 6th December we ventured out of the city headed for Stellenbosch. First stop was the newly opened Dorp Street Market! Some enjoyed company over a cup of coffee and others looked at the various stall holders. This is a lovely small market in shade and compliant with Covid restrictions.

After this it was time to head to our Mystery Venue. We had chosen Knorhoek along the R44 route. Knorhoek means literally "The Place where Lions growl" - having a history that dates back to 1793 one can only imagine the sound of the lions growling in the valley.

They are popular for their Country Feast luncheon on a Sunday where waiters bring plates of the "menu of the day" -to-the-table! A great 'gesellige' way to enjoy lunch with friends.

Sadly Carol had to miss out on the day as she was still in Kingsbury and even though she said she would 'wait-on-the-corner' at the hospital, she didn't get a positive response!! Ha, ha she was not really fit enough anyway! By all accounts everyone had FUN & enjoyed the last tour of the disastrous Covid-19 year of 2020!

Our planned November tour was postponed to February at the last moment due to Carol's pending surgery. Why not add your name to the list and come along and start 2021 with a relaxing time at the 4* ARNISTON SPA HOTEL.

Highlights include a guided visit with an old friend, Derick Burger who knows L'Agulhas like the 'back of his hand'; Tea in Kassiesbaai; and a dinner with Wanda who is well known for her meals; of course the Arniston Spa Hotel also has an awesome SPA for your enjoyment and relaxation.

THURSDAY 25TH FEBRUARY '21

All being well with LOCKDOWN we will plan a tour for THURSDAY 25TH FEBRUARY - It is very hard to comprehend that we cancelled our March 27th tour to Gordon's Bay because lockdown WAS BEGINNING IN 2020!!

February is always the HOTTEST MONTH OF THE YEAR, so we need to choose a coastal town for our meander.

Forgive me, this is still in the planning stage and full details will be available in our February Newsletter.
(Also dependent on Covid restrictions!)

ADENE FLOWERS
In the Breedekloof
SUNDAY 27TH MARCH

I have had 'my eye' on Adene Nieuwoudt for some time now. She started flower farming to get South Africans to 'buy local'! She farms under hot houses and has had phenomenal success, opening 2 shops (Pretoria & Cape Town), also selling her flowers on markets. She will confirm March flower tour days at the end of January. In the meantime diarise the date. We will leave Cape Town early, as I want to get to the farm BEFORE THE HEAT (BYO Breakfast to eat on the coach) & enjoy tea and cake after, on the farm.

Time Out outings will be re-established in February 2021.
Details in future Newsletters & on our website.
