ON THE RADAR

What a fabulous day out – starting our morning off at Klein Roosboom at just after 10h00 where 12 of us enjoyed a ‘new’ experience in their tasting caves.

“Hey, wine tasting SO early – has the Boeing flown over?” – We had pre-booked VERSAILLES and THE KITCHEN – two unique wine tasting caves!

First class wine tasting in a unique environment! Ten of the group enjoyed coffee in the JEAN restaurant and browsed their Deli as well.

At 11h30 we headed off to the Tyger Waterfront where Dale Schreuder and his staff operate the HARVEST CULTURE EATERIE restaurant. What an experience! Their staff are top notch and extremely efficient – and very quickly our huge, decadent lunch arrived – with a few of the ladies choosing alternate meals.

OUR MENU

Moroccan Roasted Leg of Lamb, Coffee & Black Pepper Rump

Accompanied by

Roast Potatoes, broccoli & bacon, Cauliflower & Cheddar Bake, Gravy and Yorkshire pudding

Dessert: a sweet delight of

Italian Meringue, Fresh fruit, and vanilla ice cream.

It was such a relaxed day – we celebrated Dennis & Brian’s birthdays and the restaurant ‘came to the party’ with special dessert plates for both.

We occupied three tables and what was great was the mingling of everyone and chatting after lunch – no rush to get everyone back on the coach for the ‘long journey’ back to the city. Durbanville is so very close to the city and this is an area worthy of exploring – it has changed over the years, with many exciting new wine estates and restaurants to visit.

The only hassle was that on arrival the lift was not working – so down two flights of stairs, we all had to go! Then the lift mechanics repaired the lift and ‘blow me down’ the power went off (with load shedding), but fortunately we had another route we could take to get everyone to the coach. So, all’s well that ends well!
